

JACKIE MARAYA GRIFFIN Voice Studio

HELLO JMGVS FAM!

HERE ARE A FEW IMPORTANT "Music Notes" BEFORE WE ENTER THE WINTER SEASON:

QUARTERLY MUSIC NOTES

Can you believe FALL is almost over?!? I hope everyone has enjoyed seeing the seasons change as much as I have. Fall in GA sure is gorgeous! The perfect backdrop for our Turkey feast this week!

Please note that I have shifted sending out newsletters every month to quarterly music notes since my new online scheduling system seems to be working great for most now. Thank you for being patient with this transition. I hope all of you have found FONS an easier way to book your lessons with me.

MUSIC DIRECTING x 3

My sincere apologies for not being able to see many of you on a regular basis the past few months. With my kids schedules picking up and music directing at 3 different places simultaneously, it's been just a tad busy LOL ☺ I appreciate your willingness to be drop in's while I navigate trying to balance everything during this busy season. I know there isn't a ton of options for lessons afterschool at this time but please know that you can always try to contact me and we can try to work out a time that is not offered online ~ fingers crossed! ☺

CALLING ALL THEATREGOERS!

For all my Broadway hopefuls and enthusiasts:

Just a reminder that a big part (...and fun part) of your growth as a performer is going to the theatre! I know I was so inspired and learned a ton just by watching shows and other performers as much as I was able to. Here are some fun upcoming shows starring fellow JMGVS performers you can check out over the holiday:

Georgia

HADESTOWN ~ Starring my son Koa and student Jagger Strange sharing the incredible role of Orpheus. This show is currently sold out but I do have 2 extra tickets so contact me asap if you are interested in going. Opens Dec 5th!

FROZEN ~ Excited to share that my daughter Hoku will finally be making her professional theatre debut! Come see her as Young Elsa in the regional premiere of this Disney musical hit at City Springs Theatre Company. Shows will be at the grand Byers Theatre Dec 13-29. Several shows are already sold out so get tickets soon! You can see her show schedule on the studio home page or pinned on Hoku or my socials ~ @msjaxx @hokugriffin

California

HOW THE GRINCH STOLE CHRISTMAS ~ So proud of the 4 out of 4 JMGVS girls who went out for this show this year made it in AND 2 for 2 on the lead as Cindy Lou Who! I'm so bummd we can't make back home to San Diego this holiday to see the show year but wishing Sofia, Arden, Alina and Esme an incredible run! Such a great way to spend the holidays in beautiful Balboa Park and at the gorgeous Old Globe Theatre. Playing now thru Dec 31st!

One of the things that warms my heart most about teaching is seeing the friendships built within my studio family and seeing y'all cheer each other on! You can always peep my socials to see what other JMGVS students are up to and go support their work. The theatre community is without a doubt six degrees of separation so get plugged in!

SCHEDULING & TUITION

Scheduling is now open for December online. You can only schedule 4 weeks in advance. Please contact me if you can't find a time that works. If you are having any issues scheduling or making payment with Fons, you can always reach out and I can schedule it for you and you can send payment via venmo or zelle.

Have a yummy and restful Thanksgiving everyone! I'm so very grateful to be a part of your lives and on this musical journey with you. Sending big warm hugs...

- Miss Jackie
